Intro

The weather is finally gorgeous again (see ya, June gloom!), and we're all leaving work and jetting to a nearby hot-spot for a drink, dinner or both. Our favorites are definitely those that offer a patio, big or small, allowing us to really soak in the final hours of sunshine each day.

Backyard Kitchen and Tap

Backyard offers a casual vibe and an American-style menu with strong drinks including their spiked punch cocktails. Ideal for a get-together with friends or family, the "backyard" of the restaurant has big, private tables as well as communal areas.
